

Parity adjustment

You may have noticed that you have not received your annual notice of salary for the upcoming year. Each year TUFA meets with the Employer to determine the parity calculation. In collecting salary data from our comparator universities, TUFA and the Employer did not have the same figures this year. We are still working toward an agreement on this, and hope to conclude these discussions in time for the August 28th payroll. Any adjustments owed will be paid retroactive to July 1.
