

IV.8 Personnel Files

IV.8.4.2 The Dean or University Librarian shall have access without the member's consent to a member's disability status, held in the Department of Human Resources, only if such information is necessary for assessing the member's capacity to carry out his/her workload. Such information cannot contain any privileged or confidential medical information and the member shall be notified any time their file is accessed.